This document is being furnished to you solely for informational purposes in considering an investment in Revesco Properties Trust (the “Trust”). All information included in this document is current as of the date hereof and is subject to change, completion or amendment without notice. This document does not purport to contain all the information necessary to evaluate an investment in the Trust, and it is understood that you will make your own independent investigation of the merits and risks of the proposed investment. This document does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, an interest in the Trust.

Your receipt of this document constitutes your agreement with the Trust: (a) to maintain the confidentiality of this document, as well as any supplemental information provided to you by the Trust or its representatives, either orally or in written form; (b) that any reproduction or distribution of this document, in whole or in part, or disclosure of any of its contents to any other person or its use for any purpose other than to evaluate the Trust and its affiliates (“Revesco”) is strictly prohibited; and (c) to return promptly to the Trust this document, as well as other materials that subsequently may be provided to you by and on behalf of the Trust, if you decide not to proceed with the investigation of Revesco.

This document includes forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical facts included in this document, including, without limitation, statements regarding the future financial position, including the initial goal of acquiring $1 billion in retail shopping centers, targeted or projected investment returns, financing terms, business strategy, projected property acquisitions, budgets and projected costs, plans and objectives of Revesco for further operations, current and future market conditions, the impacts of e-commerce, Revesco’s ability to acquire retail properties below replacement cost, and Revesco Properties’ continued investment of at least $5 million, are forward-looking statements. In addition, forward-looking statements generally can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as “may,” “will,” “expect,” “intend,” “forecasted,” “projected,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “believe,” or “continue” or the negative usages thereof or variations thereon or similar terms. Forward-looking statements reflect our current expectations and assumptions as of the date of the statements, and are subject to a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are beyond our control, which may cause actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any anticipated future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, among other things; risks related to: the effects of general economic and business conditions; real property ownership; governmental legislation and regulatory developments including changes to investment eligibility and other tax matters; environmental matters; inability to access capital or debt financing; availability of cash flow; interest rates; industry competition; acquisition and development programs; the reliance on key personnel; increases in maintenance and operating costs; catastrophic and general uninsured losses; potential conflicts of interest; fluctuations in cash distributions; dilution; and cybersecurity. The Trust cautions that this list of risk factors is not exhaustive.

Material factors or assumptions that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making an estimate set out in the forward-looking statements include that: Revesco has or will identify investment targets that meet its desired criteria, and that it will be able to acquire such targets on terms materially similar to those described in this document or on terms otherwise favorable to Revesco; Revesco will remain in good standing with respect to its obligations to senior lenders; the general economy is stable; local real estate conditions are stable; interest rates are relatively stable; equity and debt markets continue to provide access to capital; and that Revesco’s expenses will not be materially greater than anticipated. These factors and assumptions should be considered carefully by readers. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements or the assumptions on which the forward-looking statements are based on. Investors are further cautioned that the foregoing list of factors and assumptions is not exhaustive.

In addition, information regarding targeted returns is based on the following principles and assumptions: Revesco will maintain a consistent level of indebtedness with respect to the identified investment properties and will not materially incur additional indebtedness, other than with respect to acquisition costs or as disclosed herein; the consumer price index, property taxes, operating expense growth, and market rent growth will be as anticipated; revenue will equal the scheduled lease income less a vacancy allowance; existing tenants will fulfill their current contractual lease obligations and remain in occupancy and pay rent for the term of their leases; upon expiry of their leases, the number of retained tenants will meet historical retention experience; any vacancy downtime (being the period to replace non-renewing tenants) will be limited to projected time periods; Revesco will maintain cash reserves as anticipated.

Although we believe that the assumptions on which the forward-looking statements are made are reasonable, based on the information available to it on the date such statements were made, no assurances can be given as to whether these assumptions will prove to be correct. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. We will not update any forward-looking information except as, and to the extent, required by applicable Canadian securities laws. The forward-looking statements contained herein, and all subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to Revesco, or persons acting on any of their behalf, are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement.

In considering the prior performance information contained herein, prospective investors should bear in mind that past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results, and there can be no assurance that the Trust will achieve comparable results.

GALLATIN SHOPPING CENTER

BOZEMAN, MT

Throughout the disruption of the pandemic, Gallatin Center was successfully repositioned to adapt to changing market conditions. The management team skillfully leased over 9,000 square feet of vacant space, achieving 100% occupancy and ensuring the center's full utilization. By implementing accretive lease restructuring for current tenants, we maximized net operating income (NOI), bolstering the center's financial performance. The comprehensive business plan was substantially completed in just 2.5 years, significantly ahead of the projected five-year timeline.

ALPINE VALLEY

AMERICAN FORK, UTAH

Located in American Fork, Utah, Alpine Valley, a Target anchored center, was a strategic acquisition for Revesco. During its ownership, Revesco successfully renegotiated leases with key anchor tenants Old Navy and Famous Footwear, and extended Dollar Tree's lease. The tenant and merchandising mix was further improved by replacing Maurice's with Bath & Body Works. The center, which comprised three separate buildings, saw one of these buildings sold to reduce the investment basis and secure long-term leases for the spaces adjacent to Target. Managing the center through the challenges of the COVID 19 pandemic and navigating the subsequent market disruption, coupled with the necessity to sell due to the wrap up of closed-end fund, ultimately impacted the overall return on this asset."

THE SHOPPES AT CASTLE ROCK

CASTLE ROCK, CO

Revesco was able to create substantial value through strategic lease renegotiations and reinvestments. By amending co-tenancy restrictions with anchor tenants, the management enhanced the overall tenant mix and shopping experience. Addressing deferred maintenance issues revitalized the center, ensuring a more appealing environment for shoppers and tenants alike. The negotiation of the Office Max lease from percentage rent to full market rent contributed to a significant increase in net operating income (NOI), solidifying the financial stability and growth of the center.

HIGHLAND KNOLLS

KATY, TX

Highland Knolls exemplifies Revesco's strategic foresight and adept negotiation in property management. Purchased with the understanding that Randalls, the grocery anchor tenant, might leave, the management team skillfully navigated this challenge. They negotiated a termination agreement with Randalls, planning to use the proceeds to subdivide the space into smaller shops. However, before finalizing this termination, they successfully engaged a local specialty grocer to buy the center and establish their own grocery store. This proactive approach ensured a seamless transition of anchor tenants, maintaining the property's appeal and stability.
